Question:

Science Class 6

Separation of fibres of cotton from its seeds is known as

1. weaving
2. spinning
3. knitting
4. ginning

Downloaded From: eLearn Pro (https://myelearnpro.com/)

Concept:
Cotton fibre is a plant seed fibre that needs to be harvested and then separated from the seed . Harvesting is carried out by handpicking the cotton boll from the field or by automatic harvesting using a spindle picker. The process involved in separating cotton fibre from seeds is calle

eLearn Pro
Learning Made Easy

* Some Hindi Fonts are not rendered properly.

Downloaded From: eLearn Pro (https://myelearnpro.com/)