Question:

Common Errors

Which part of the following sentence contains a grammatical error? No sooner had he (a)/ come from Mumbai when (b)/ he was asked (c)/ to proceed to Delhi. (d)

1. No sooner had he
2. come from Mumbai when
3. he was asked
4. to proceed to Delhi.
5. No error

Explanation:
Because the sentence begins with No sooner had he come, the right use will be 'than' not 'when'. 'When' is used, when the exact event or time is mentioned directly in the sentence, e.g., He had just come from Mumbai when he was asked to proceed to Delhi.
